Seller's obligations under this Section shall not be limited in any way by any limitations on the amount or type of damages, compensation or benefits paid or payable by Seller under Workers Compensation Acts, disability benefits acts or other employee benefit laws or regulations. The indemnification obligations of this Section shall survive termination or expiration of this Purchase Order. Seller agrees, in any instance where claims, suits, actions or legal proceedings are brought against the Seller and in any way affect Buyer's interests under this Order or otherwise, that (i) Seller shall notify Buyer in a timely manner (not to exceed five (5) business days) after learning of any actual or threatened claims, suits, actions or legal proceedings, and shall not at any time consummate any settlement without Buyer's prior written consent; and (ii) without releasing any obligation, liability or undertaking of Seller to indemnify Buyer hereunder, Buyer shall have the right to (1) cooperate in the defense of such claim, (2) with permission of the court, intervene in any such action, and (3) supersede Seller in the defense of any such claim.

31. Intellectual Property: Seller agrees to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless Buyer, its customers and its agents against any liability, including without limitation costs, expenses and reasonable attorney's fees, for or by reason of any actual or alleged infringement of the intellectual property rights of any third party, including, without limitation, any patent, trademark or copyright arising out of the manufacture, use, sale, delivery or disposal of Goods or Services furnished pursuant to Purchase Order, except to the extent attributable solely to Seller's compliance with specific written instructions issued by Buyer's Authorized Procurement Representative. This provision shall apply to each notice or claim of patent, copyright or other type of infringement relating to the performance of the Purchase Order of which Seller has knowledge, regardless of whether or not Buyer has given Seller notice of such claim.

32. Independent Contractor Relationship: The relationship between the parties is that of independent contractors and not that of principal and agent, employer and employee, joint employers, or legal partners. 33. Electronic Information Transactions: The parties may carry out business electronically, including Purchase Order placement or modification/amendment. Unless the security, authenticity, or integrity of an electronic Purchase Order or Electronic Data Interchange (EDI) message is compromised, the parties intend to be legally bound by electronic Purchase Orders or EDI messages created, sent and received pursuant to these terms and conditions. The parties expressly waive any rights to contest the validity of Purchase Orders and amendments/modifications on the sole ground that they were performed electronically or by EDI. The parties agree to give to electronic Purchase Orders and EDI messages the same probative value as exchanges by registered mail. Neither party shall contest the admissibility as evidence of EDI messages, provided they are created and exchanged in accordance with the provisions of these terms and conditions. The parties shall adopt applicable security measures for password and access protection for Purchase Orders issued in an electronic transaction.

34. Governing Law, Jurisdiction and Disputes: All matters arising out of or related to the Purchase Order or these terms and condition for purchase shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal laws of the State of Delaware without giving effect to any choice or conflict of law provision or rule (whether of the State of Delaware or any other jurisdiction) that would cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than those of the State of Delaware. Any legal suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to the Purchase Order or these terms and condition for purchase shall be instituted in the federal courts of the United States of America or the courts of the State of Delaware, and each party irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of such courts in any suit, action or proceeding. For disputed matters and claims involving U.S. Government customers, the matter will be resolved in accordance with the statutory, regulatory, and common law of the U.S. as they apply to procurements of goods and services by the United States, to the extent applicable.

35. Attorneys' Fees: If any action or proceeding relating to the Purchase Order or these terms and conditions or the enforcement of any provision of the Purchase Order or these terms and conditions is brought against any party hereto, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees, costs, and disbursements (in addition to any other relief to which the prevailing party may be entitled).

36. Confidential and Proprietary Information: If the parties have a valid non-disclosure agreement, proprietary information agreement, or confidential information agreement, then the terms of such agreement shall apply to this Purchase Order. Confidential Information includes information designated as confidential or proprietary information by Buyer, or from all the relevant circumstances should reasonably be assumed by the Seller to be confidential and proprietary. Seller agrees to hold in confidence and to maintain as confidential all Confidential Information, and to promptly notify disclosing party of any unauthorized disclosure or release of any Confidential Information to any third party. Seller agrees not to disclose any Confidential Information to any third party without the prior written consent of Buyer. Seller further agrees not to make use of any Confidential Information except to fulfill its obligations to Buyer pursuant to this Purchase Order. Specifically, Seller agrees (a) not to use Confidential Information to solicit any Buyer customer or otherwise compete against Buyer for sales to Buyer customers now or in the future, (b) not to reverse engineer or analyze in any way products or samples received from under this Purchase Order, (c) to maintain any products or samples received from Buyer under this Purchase Order in confidence, (d) not to cause or allow any third party to reverse engineer or analyze in any way any products or samples received from Buyer under this Purchase Order, and (e) not to use Confidential Information to solicit any of Buyer's customers or suppliers. In furnishing any information or materials relating to the Purchase Order, whether Confidential Information or otherwise, Buyer (a) makes no warranty, guarantee, or representation, either expressed or implied (i) as to its adequacy, accuracy, sufficiency, or freedom from defects; or (ii) that use or reproduction of any such information or data shall be free from any patent, trade secret, trademark or copyright infringement, and (b) shall not be liable in damages, of whatever kind, as a result of Seller's receipt or use of, or reliance on, any such information or data furnished hereunder. Upon Buyer's request, Seller shall immediately return or destroy, at Buyer's option, all Confidential Information in its possession. In addition to any other remedies available to Buyer, Buyer shall be entitled to injunctive relief for any violation of this section.

37. Compliance with Law: Seller is in compliance with and shall comply with all applicable laws, regulations and ordinances. Seller shall comply with all anti-corruption, export, and import laws of all countries involved in the sale of Goods or Services. (4) Seller affirms it abides by applicable laws that prohibit discrimination against qualified individuals based on status as protected veterans, disabilities, race, color, religion, sexual orientation, sex, gender identity, or national origin.

38. Notices: All notices, requests, consents, and waivers hereunder shall be in writing and addressed to the parties at the addresses set forth on the face of the Purchase Order or to such other addresses that may be designated. All notices shall be delivered by (i) email (if provided) and (ii) personal delivery, nationally recognized overnight courier, facsimile or certified or registered mail. A notice is effective only (a) upon receipt of the receiving party and (b) if the party giving the notice has complied with the requirements of this section.

39. Product Warranties: Seller extends any and all Seller or Original Equipment Manufacturer (OEM) warranties to Buyer and Buyer's customers and end users for a period of one year from the acceptance of goods or services by Buyer's customers or end users.
